GET INVOLVED

— Volunteer distributing books to children who survived a devastating tornado in Moore, Oklahoma

"Their faces light up when I hand them their book!"

It's not just kids overseas who lack Bibles and other Christian books. It's also kids within the US—and often in our own communities! The kids who go to school with our kids, who live a few houses down, and who live on the other side of town may have never held a Bible. Sharing God's Mighty Word focuses specifically on delivering Bible-based books to kids in the US. And you can be part of our work!

SHARING GOD'S MIGHTY WORD

In the small town of Denison, Iowa, a church with few Spanish books struggles to reach out to the Hispanic immigrants who now call the area home. In Mobile, Alabama, an inner-city Lutheran school barely has the Christian curriculum materials it needs to teach its students. In Pilger, Nebraska, kids lose their church and almost everything else in their community during a tornado.

"Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it."

—Proverbs 22:6 ESV

Sharing God's Mighty Word is an outreach project that sends Bible-based literature to kids around the US. The project focuses on reaching inner-city kids, Hispanic kids, Native American kids, and kids who are in crisis. By getting your students involved in this project, you will teach them—and the kids they help us serve—that God values all people regardless of race, ethnicity, or social status. You'll teach that God reaches out especially to those who are suffering, that He doesn't forget them, that He loves them. And you'll teach your students that they can be missionaries in their own communities!
